Watch Paper
for Numbers

Dollar bills bearing the numbers above will be redeemed in $2 bills, if presented to DOLLAR DAN at the Boston Evening American Classified Corner, Summer and Devonshire Sts., before 5 P. M., Wednesday, Sept. 16, 1925.

KEEN EYES QUICK TO PICK LUCKY NUMBERS

Deuce, a relapse is farther away than Doc Cook was from the Pole. Uncle Sam, of course, is much cheered up with this slipping.

Dollar Dan is dizzy. He counted off "One, two—One, two," yesterday until he thought he was a metronome. There are few that can spell that, let alone feel like one.

As we dash dizzily to press with Dollar Dan's returns, the winners thus far for the first day are:

FIFTY-DOLLAR WINNER
Colonel W. A. McIntyre, Salvation Army commander.
Ten-Dollar Winners:
Jayne Auburn of the "My Girl" Co., Wilbur theatre;
Mrs. Lena McCarthy, No. 243 Fay street, "Whitcomb 'Newsie'" at the se-Milk street, subway entrance.

Ten-Dollar Winners:
Margaret "Peg" Callahan, No. 391 Park street, Melford, knicker at Hood's No. 39 Summer street;
Peter Anastos, sweet shop proprietor at No. 1415 Hancock street, Quincy;
Doris R. Lowell, No. 18 Mayflower avenue, Hall;

Nathan Diamont, cigar salesman at 474 Washington street;
Mrs. Annie M. Doudrot, 165 Pelisway, West Medford;
Under the wire was Anastos with Bill No. T57208067A, good for Ten Dollars.

HOPPED TRAIN:
Anastos said he took in the bill on a sale a short time after he had been passing the American. When he found he had a bonanza number he hopped the next train for Boston.

Then "Peg" Callahan, who sits in the cage at Hood's, slid shyly into the city room, with a magic bill gripped in her hand. A man's yearning for a cup of morning coffee and a couple of doughnuts had given her the lucky bill, No. M31191641B.

Next entered Miss Bernstein, who sells you papers at the Milk street subway entrance. He turned when a man handed him a bill, he said, but he didn't fume so much when he remembered the next Dollar Dan contest and ran his eye down the magic numbers. Moe held Bill No. A77922553B, which shook us out of 120.

LUCKY MOTHER.
Fourth to call on Dollar Dan was Mrs. Lena McCarthy of No. 243 Fayette street, Waltham, mother of seven children, the eldest eighteen and the youngest only two months.

Mrs. McCarthy received Bill No. N2972131B (good for $20) at the post-office and then visited her mother-in-law's home where she read of the bonanza offering in the Evening American.

Still uttering three shouting cheers under her breath and carrying her baby on her arm, she came in to claim the $20.

The first $50 redemption by Dollar Dan was when Colonel McIntyre produced Bill No. N14945754B, received as a donation to the Salvation Army's fresh air camp "Wonderland" for children at Massapequa Lake, Sharon, which closed Tuesday night and has been converted into a Salvation Army home for convalescents.

Colonel McIntyre said he intended that the magic $50 should go for two beds for poor children, with a tablet bearing the name of the Boston Evening American on each bed. Twelve children will be benefited.

Today she saw announcement of the Dollar Dan bonanza and, elated to find that one of her Dollars bills carried two $20 and a $20—her lucky numbers—she checked the American magic numbers and uttered a whoop.

This bill goes out of circulation right now," she said. "With it I will start a bank account for my grand children."

But they are a long way off—oh dear, yes, even far away.

Miss Bernstein's bill, No. T13347188A, winning $20, was followed by Bill No. T13942423B held in the hand of Doris R. Lowell, who won a $20 by a bicycle in a contest held by the Los Angeles Examiner, another Hearst newspaper.

That was some time back, however—Miss Lowell said so herself—and the winning of $20 for $1 ended a long drought in the matter of lucky wins. She didn't really remember where she got her lucky dollar, for she has been traveling.

Eleventh on the list of fortunate arrivals was Nathan Diamont, of No. 21 Savin street, Roxbury, who produced the legitimate cigar number at No. 474 Washington street.

MONEY CHANGER.
"How did I get it?" repeated Diamont. "Say, there's been a run on the counter all day long—men asking to have fives and tens changed for ones."

"I didn't know what it was all about until I picked up a Boston Evening American and saw about the Dollars and Tens myself—and here I am and here it is!"

the bill, within one week of publication of the number, at the Boston Evening American, Classified Corner, Summer and Devonshire streets. Five more of today's numbers are worth $20 each and if you hold a dollar bill bearing any one of these five numbers, and present it as specified above, you will be handed just twenty times the value of your numbered bill.

The remaining seven numbers of the seventeen selected today will be turned to the lucky holders $10 each. All the sums—the Fifteen, Twenty and Tens—will be paid each day in $5 bills.

Each lucky holder of a bill, remember, must redeem or cash it within one week of the date the number is published—and before 5 p. m. of the final day. For instance, today's number must be taken up before 5 p. m. next Wednesday.

No employee in the Hearst service is eligible in this Dollar Dan bonanza.

MORE ARRESTS IN P. O. THEFT CASE COMING

Daughter-in-Law Defends
Motives of South Sudbury
Postmistress

South Sudbury, Sept. 10.—The mistress of the South Sudbury post office, in Boston to face charges of an $1,500 embezzlement, Mrs. Robert Miles, daughter-in-law of Mrs. Maude M. Miles, dealt out stamps and letters today with shaking fingers and told of her mother-in-law's theft, perpetrated to aid her son.

"The whole storm has broken over our heads with a terrible shock," said young Mrs. Miles, in tears. "The money order for $104 was taken by mother to pay for the last installment on Bob's tractor. The worst part of the whole affair is—that if the investigation had come only a little bit later, mother would have had the entire deficit made up and the books in order."

PROPERTY DEBT HIDDEN.
The postoffice job was taken by Bob's mother against her will, says Mrs. Miles. She never was fully capable of handling funds. I have worked here with her since she has been on the job and have filled in for her when she was away, and I often begged her to stay home on the farm and take care of the baby and let me take up the postoffice work—but she wouldn't hear to it because it was her job.

"People have been under the impression that mother was left fairly well off by her husband's estate—left in her when he died several years ago," said Mrs. Miles. "The truth of it is that the property was scattered and heavily ridden with debts—and Bob has been having a hard pull making the old farm pay."

INTENTIONS WERE BEST.
"What mother plans to do after the matter has been cleared up, I can't say. A man is coming to arrange about buying the farm, and we are fairly certain about making the sale and raising funds in that way."

"Restitution of the postoffice funds was underway before the inspectors discovered the deficit—and just a little more time and this whole horrible affair would never have occurred."

"Whatever Bob's mother has done—was done with the best of intentions," declared her daughter-in-law. "The name of Robert's mother, a well known business man of this town, is being mentioned as the successor to Mrs. Miles."

Auto Hits Roller Skater
Arthur Magee, roller skater, 72 Baker avenue, while roller skating last evening on Ocean avenue, was knocked down by an automobile operated by Howard Haydock, of No. 78 Moulton street, Lynn. Haydock claims the boy, who suffered no minor injuries, fell in front of the car.

KEILHER NOW IN MAYORALTY FIGHT

Democrats Fear Candidacy
Will Split Party Vote and Elect Nichols

An infant mayoral candidacy, long expected but now-born, today begins its teething, and the municipal politician pot begins its seething. And there's many a boiling bubble that has broken out on the hitherto level surface of city politics in the last few hours.

John A. Keilher has cast his cocked hat, sheriff's staff, and golden badge into the mayoral ring. The Good Government is split over the question of endorsing him. Edward L. Logan or Malcolm Nichols, with a few members of the board of strategy crying to be heard in favor of Sheriff Keilher or Dist. Atty. Thomas C. O'Brien.

CURLEY MEN FOR COUNCIL.
The Goo Goo sent out a burly call for funds "that the city may be purged of the regime of misrule." The Curley lieutenants have laid down the dictum that there is to be a Curley standard-bearer entered in the fight for the City Council from every ward in the city.

Archibald (Boss) Curley, fearing that Nichols will step in if these such powerful vote getters as the Democrats, Logan, Dunn and Keilher, remain in the fight, have bawled higher and yowled about the city in a free frenzy to see whether these factions would accept a compromise candidate to save Boston for the party.

ACTION EXPECTED.
The most significant of these various developments is the Curley dictum that there be one of his adherents in the fight for the council from every ward. That means that Curley is building his machine for 1928 when he will be a gubernatorial candidate. He must go out of Boston with a tremendous vote on that occasion and he must have his wheels working regardless of who may be Mayor.

Keilher's announcement has been expected for some time. He has now thrown down his glove for the purpose of showing the voters that he is not waiting for a possible Good Government endorsement, and also that he has no intention of withdrawing from the fight in favor of General Logan.

NICHOLS FAVORITE.
The fact that the Good Government board of strategy is badly split is an open secret. Logan has many friends on the board and one close relative, but he also has many enemies. Keilher has ardent partisans, but equally ardent foes. O'Brien has something of a following, but the Republicans, Malcolm Nichols, seems to stand out as the favorite of the lot.

Busy Days Are Ahead for Boston Debutantes

Many of Younger Set to Be Formally Inducted Into Hub Smart Set This Fall

Barry Alden

THE DEBUTANTE OF THE ON-COMING season is to be an extremely busy young person, indeed, but nevertheless contemplates joyously the almost unbroken sequence of teas, receptions, dinners and balls that fill her program for the fall. Very soon does the eager debutante take center stage socially, to continue in that important niche until the late Spring. A glance at the long and important list of dates discloses that exclusive suburban country clubs and metropolitan ballrooms share favor as setting for the all-important coming out.

AT 9 SEPTEMBER, according to the Junior League records, will see Miss Harriet Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Moore of Brush Hill Road, Milton, make her low to society, via a tea at the family home. Miss Moore spent school days at the Foxcroft establishment in Virginia, highly favored by a number of Boston girls.

ANOTHER PROMINENT young girl about to be introduced, one very specially fitted with personality and beauty, is Miss Ellen Hallowell, third daughter of the N. Persons Hallowell. Early October is the time, when at the Hallowell Roadville home, Miss Hallowell is to be given a tea, an affair sure to shine brilliantly in debutante annals.

OTHER OCTOBER DEBUTS on the League's calendar are Miss Caroline and Miss Mildred Keyes, Miss Elizabeth Lebed, Miss Dorothy Lawrence, Miss Katherine Dalton, Miss Mary Curtis and Miss Josephine Jewell. The first among the Misses Caroline and Mildred Keyes, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Keyes of Concord, will be presented at a dance at the Concord Country Club.

A SECOND DOUBLE presentation affair slated with the League, also at the Junior Country Club on in historic Concord, has as chief actors Miss Mary Curtis and Miss Josephine Jewell, for whom Mr. Alfred Curtis and Mrs. Play Jewell are entertaining. Miss Dorothy Lawrence and Miss Katherine Dalton also make their bows to society.

Miss Pauline Fenno, eldest of Mrs. A. Carteret Fenno's daughters, has been studying at Oxford and traveling about the Continent. The Fenno country place, Ox Pasture Hill, in Rowley, with its many wide and rolling acres and large manor house, is a show place of the region.

MISS LAWRENCE'S PARENTS are the James Lawrence of Brush Hill Road, and Miss Dalton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip S. Dalton of Milton. Both girls are destined for high but not for many festivities inaugurated by socially distinguished kin. First there is a Halloween dance on the cards for them at the Milton Club.

PLANS MADE LONG AGO—before Summer's exodus scattered Society to the Four Winds, included Mr. and Mrs. H. Hooper Lawrence's tea for their daughter, Miss Caroline Lawrence, at the Beacon Street home, No. 474. This is a November affair. The November list includes as well Miss Elizabeth Bigelow (a Winsor school girl, for whom Mrs. Henry Bigelow entertains at the Concord Country Club).

NOVEMBER 10 AND 11 are gala ball days. The Henry B. Warrens have the presentation of their second daughter, Miss Fredericka Warren, on the cards for the 10th at the Chilton Club, where the elder daughter, Miss Margaret Warren, was introduced in brilliant fashion some two winters ago.

ON NOVEMBER 11 the limelight of husband focuses on Miss Margaret W. Coolidge, for whom Mr. and Mrs. Julian Lowell Coolidge also a ball at the Hotel Somerset to launch their daughter on the social scene. The Coolidges were at North Haven, Maine, this summer, at their place there, called "Wetherholm."

the value of the Santa Fe road, tentatively, at $476,000,000. The Santa Fe is well built, well managed and its value is far above the official estimate. The stockholders would not sell it for any such price or double that.

THE SANTA FE should add to its value, and to the public's appreciation of its good management, by cutting the round-trip time from Chicago to the Pacific Coast, which could easily be done.

THE SANTA FE should do for its own sake. In the long run, the value of a railroad depends on the value that the public puts upon that railroad's service.

AMUNDSEN is not easily discouraged. Next March he will try another North Pole trip, using an Italian dirigible in place of airplanes that failed last time. The plan is not as reckless as it seems, for the dirigible is better than the airplane in the Arctic, comparatively free from storms.

FORMER KAISER LAYS BLAME ON BRITAIN

Wilhelm Charges British Blocked Effort at Alliance of U. S., Germany, Britain

Berlin, Sept. 10 (U.S.S.)—Former Kaiser Wilhelm today entered the discussion of war guilt which has torn Europe and particularly Germany since the end of the World War.

The former Kaiser, writing from Doorn to the Deutsches Zeitung, by implication, charges Great Britain with blocking efforts by President Wilson to form an alliance between the United States, Great Britain and Germany, which might have prevented the World War.

The former Kaiser, in his article, makes the direct charge that Great Britain sabotaged Colonel House's mission to Europe in the early part of 1914, and declares the objective of this mission was the creating of an alliance between the United States, Great Britain and Germany.

Great Britain failed this attempt at an alliance because at that time she was engaged in an attempt to conclude a naval treaty with Russia, the former Kaiser charged. He

Treasury to Ask Surtax Cut, Ban On Publicity

Washington, Sept. 10 (A.P.)—The Treasury's tax recommendations to Congress now are expected to include a reduction in surtax rates to a maximum of 50 per cent, repeal of the income tax publicity section, and a lowering, if not an entire elimination, of the tax on estates.

Further states Great Britain was fearful the proposed visit of Viscount Grey, then British foreign minister, to Kell to discuss the probabilities of an alliance with Col. House and German representatives might cause consternation to both Russia and Russia.

EVERETT TAX RATE IS BOOSTED $3.40

Everett's new tax rate is to be $32.20, it was announced at noon today. That is an increase of $3.40 over the existing rate.

Increased budget requirements and State taxes are responsible for the advance, it was announced. The council in Everett has increased $2,500,000.

REVERE AGAIN IN FIGHT FOR ANNEXATION

Taxpayers Association Mass Meeting to Discuss Proposal

Revere's tremendous tax rate, $43.10 per thousand, has given new impetus to the project to annex the city to Boston. Now the Real Estate Tax Payers' Association of the resort city plan a mass meeting in a few days to put the annexation question squarely before the people.

The organization numbers 249 prominent citizens, and it was inaugurated to prevent a recurrence of so great a tax rate. The association was born last Fall when it was inevitable that this year's tax rate would be a huge figure. Augustus Hanning is president, George L. Atkins, vice-president; Howard L. Whitaker, treasurer, and J. Frank Robertson, secretary.

In addition to the protest of the real estate association the individual tax payers are up in arms over the rate. The association plans weekly meetings following the mass discussion of the annexation question, and the whole matter will be looked out, and will undoubtedly become a big political factor.

DEFERRED PAYMENT MERCHANDISING
Goes into Effect Saturday, Sept. 12th

The name of Wilson has become a household word throughout New England for two generations, and our policy of Fair and Square Dealing has won the approval and generous patronage of a host of satisfied customers.

The People have placed their faith in us and we have never betrayed their trust!

FOR some time we have been urged by many of our best friends and well-wishers to sell on time.

We realized that the whole nature of credit selling has undergone a change in recent years.

We found that progressive jewelers throughout the country were adopting the Partial Payment system, and that Diamonds were being marketed on the same plan as Household Goods, Automobiles, Real Estate, etc., with increasing success.

It was pointed out to us that the United States Government, in its Liberty Loan drives, did not make it necessary for the public to draw their money out of the bank to pay the full amount down on Liberty Bonds, thus giving to the so-called Installment Plan a new dignity.

It was also pointed out to us that we owed a duty to the great buying public to make it possible for them to take advantage of the beautiful things we sell.

On and After SATURDAY, SEPT. 12th, Our Deferred Payment Plan on DIAMONDS, WATCHES and JEWELRY will prove a revelation to the people of New England
A number of innovations will herald our entrance into this new and broader field

CITY COUNCIL IN UPROAR OVER LIGHT PLANT

Watson-Moriarty Verbal Duel
Precedes Hearing Date

Fixing

The question of municipal lighting threw the city council into uproar when President James T. Moriarty and Councilman James A. Watson drew sabres and had it at each other. The short and ugly word was hurled. Charges of propaganda and of sharp practice were wide-spread, but finally the council managed to agree to hold a public hearing on the question of city lighting on the evening of November 10 at 8 o'clock.

WATSON'S OFFENSIVE.
The greater part of the debate arose over the introduction of an order by Councilman Watson to set a date for the hearing prior to the city election, after the council had unanimously agreed that a request should be sent to Mayor Curley for a $15,000 appropriation to cover the expense of holding public hearings. Watson wanted meetings held immediately. This plan was opposed by President Moriarty.

Watson charged that the records proved that Moriarty was opposed to public hearings on the question. "That's an untruth," Moriarty shouted.

Moriarty succeeded in having Watson's statements concerning him erased from the records. "I don't believe we ought to hire counsel before we know whether or not we can pay them," declared Moriarty. "I don't think that we ought to spend the city's money or hold a political rally in City Hall before election."

WANTED OUTSIDE COUNSEL.
Watson stated that he had no confidence in the city law department. "I have no desire to reflect any discredit on the municipal law department by hiring outside counsel. But they cannot devote all their time to such a huge question as the present one."

Watson in open council flayed the members for their action. He threatened to take the platform against Gilbody in the coming council fight.

He will file with the city clerk a request for reconsideration of the vote of himself and Walsh and Donoghue as it stands at present. It appears that the three were against public hearings, which is quite contrary to their actions.

City Hall

MRS. JAMES M. CURLEY, wife of the Mayor, who is recovering at her home in Hull, following a recent automobile accident, was formerly referred to as a "pretty good soldier," by Mayor Curley. Mrs. Curley submitted to having her nose reset without the aid of an anesthetic, a very painful operation. Her nose was broken as the result of the accident.

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER TIMOTHY W. KELLEY of the Soldiers Relief Department may well feel proud of his friends. A delegation from East Boston, his home port, called upon Mayor Curley urging him to appoint Kelley to the commission-ship to take the place left vacant by the resignation of General Thane. Two years ago when the place was open the same group presented Mayor Curley with a petition signed by more than 1,000 asking that Kelley be appointed. The same friends, feeling apparently still exists. They again ask for his appointment.

THE bathing average of the fire department under the guidance of Fire Commissioner Glynn and Chief Bennett for the month of August 1923 and 1924 is about even. The month last past destroyed property worth $233,277 as against $244,862 in 1924. The closing of bells and siren whistles were heard 815 times during August and in the same month of 1924 on 827 different occasions.

CHAIRMAN EDWARD T. KELLEY of the board of assessors leaves this week on his annual vacation. After months of hard work in determining Boston's tax rate, he was asked, "Where are you going next?" "The Canada before we all go," he replied, smiling.

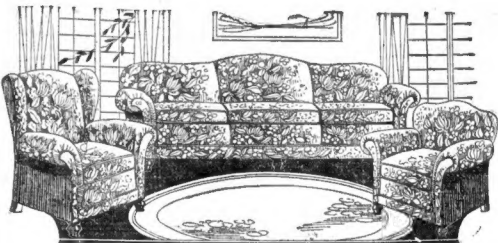

BOSTON friends of Frank Rock, former superintendent of supplies, will be pleased to learn that he is on his way to Florida, where he and a group of Bostonians are interested in a huge land deal.

FRANK COOK, aide of Fire Commissioner Glynn, is at his home suffering from a case of nerves. He is on the road to recovery, however, and will soon be at his place at the wheel of the huge red car of the head of the fire department.

DR. JOHN A. CECONI, supervisor of hygiene in the Boston public schools, has completed plans for an intensive survey of the general health of every pupil attending the coming season. Dr. Ceconi was formerly director of the bureau of communicable diseases of the city health department.

PETER BORRA, well known at Torrey, seen now and then about City Hall, is at Clearwater, Fla., where he is interested in a hotel project.

a court-martial for alleged insubordination, is expected to be convicted and probably forced out of the service, the seriousness of the issue he has raised is privately admitted by many army leaders.

Secretary of the Navy, Wilbur, while he has taken no action officially, is also vitally interested in the outcome of the Mitchell case in view of the latter's charges against the Navy Department, and is expected to join in any request by the War Department for an independent administrative investigation apart from the ordinary court martial proceedings.

Mitchell's declaration that almost "reasonable inefficiency" characterized the supervision of aeronautics, although intended for his own officers, was feared because of its possible effect on public opinion.

The big drive by supporters of a unified air service bill was to be made during the next session of Congress. Agitation over this bill, which Representative Charles Curry, Republican, California, has introduced, is feared by many officers because of the possible effect upon army appropriations.

ARMY FUNDS MENACED.
 With the administration economy drive now under full steam, and with the near certainty that army appropriations for next year will be further curtailed, a fight for a separate air service was feared because passage of the bill might reduce army funds to a mere trickle and virtually disrupt the present military establishment.

Air service officers, led by Mitchell, have been chafing for years under what they claim is a "old fogy" administration of a revolutionary war-time weapon.

Complete freedom of operation, which has been sought by many air service officers, is opposed by the War Department, which points to the wide latitude it already given the head of this branch.

Although admittedly aroused over Mitchell's latest denunciation of their "old fogy" administration, the War Department leaders today insisted their main interest in the case was to see that the stormy petrel of the service got an impartial trial.

WILBUR MAY QUIT.
 The evidence submitted by Colonel

George A. Nugent of the inspector general's office, who is due to arrive in San Antonio late tonight, will, after a review by the Judge Advocate of the army, be presented to Assistant Secretary of War Dwight Davis, who is expected to order the convening of a court-martial.

Their dignity wounded to the quick by the barbed darts of Colonel Mitchell, Secretary Weeks and Secretary Wilbur have demanded that the charges be brought against the "fibberhead of the air service" be more drastic than mere reprimands.

Those closest to Wilbur go so far as to say that the secretary will resign his cabinet post unless the court-martial charges be made more severe.

"Colonel Mitchell in the naval aviation service" is the Mitchell utterance that has burned deepest into the breast of the Secretary of the Navy. Wilbur demands that the court martial charges be as drawn that Mitchell will be compelled to prove these attacks on the navy heads or write himself down as a liar.

Wilbur also demands that there be no secret military trial, but a hearing in the open, so that all the world may know every development.

The first question that will confront President Coolidge when he reaches Washington today from the summer capital, will be this possibility of Mitchell's court-martial, with the possibility of Wilbur's carrying out his threat of resigning.

SEVERE WILL INQUIRE.
 Full and constructive inquiry into the justification for Colonel Mitchell's virulent charges of incompetence and "criminal negligence" in the handling of the national defense will be welcomed by the War Department, it was stated authoritatively today.

Under the articles of war, the truth or falsity of Colonel Mitchell's charges will be decided upon the question of his insubordination in using such intemperate language against his superiors.

The court-martial before which, in all likelihood, Colonel Mitchell will be tried, will therefore lack an authority to take cognizance of the sensational accusations, particularly those affecting the navy.

But the army, from Acting Secretary of War Davis on down, it was asserted, will welcome any fair and constructive investigation of its conduct of the national defense with the funds allotted to the air service.

Official fees that such funds as have been granted for air service have been handled with good judgment by those intrusted with the management of the air service, only two of Colonel Mitchell's specific charges affect directly the conduct of the War Department. In one instance the Colonel accuses the department of understating aircraft work in order to discredit the air service.

DENY CHARGES.
 This is emphatically denied by army officers.

The second accusation is that pilots are being considered as deprive aviators of their extra flying pay and to substitute insurance payments. This charge was denied to day by authorities at the War Department.

If a court-martial is determined upon, it will be appointed either by direction of the President or by Major General Ernest Hindle, commanding the Eighth Corps Area, who is Colonel Mitchell's immediate superior. Neither Secretary of War Weeks nor either war department officials has the authority to convene a court.

Congressman Defends Mitchell in Air Fight
 Washington, Sept. 10.—One of the most vocal of the defense of Colonel Mitchell was James H. McMillan, Congressman from Louisiana.

"Colonel Mitchell has the backing of 99 out of every 100 American in his fight to make the air service of the government."

When the showdown comes between Mitchell and the high command of the War Department, if the powers in control grant him a fair trial, I believe he will win. He has the support of the people, and he has the support of the air service, he will find the people against him in 1925.

"We have enough of the inefficiency of the scattered air service. The proper solution would be to have a separate arm of national defense, in which would be united the air service."

"As long as the air service is dominated by the present heads of the Navy and Army, we will never have an adequate air defense, for the powers that control these departments are too slow to give aviation its fair position in the national defense."

"Inefficiency, waste in buying supplies and training of aviation personnel are bound to continue so long as the present bumbling chiefs of the Army and Navy dominate aviation."

"In the Navy the old-line, non-flying officers insist that the battleship is superior to the airplane, and they will not give the latter a fair showing."

"I would follow Mitchell's proposal of having a security of the navy, with three assistants. One an assistant would be in charge of the navy, another the army, and a third the air forces."

The wreck of the Shenandoah is but a sample of bungling by the officers in charge of the navy. The Roma was destroyed in 1922, but nothing was ever done to fix the responsibility. The disaster was passed up and the whitewash brush was used to clear everyone.

"Three tragedies will continue as long as we have aviation directed among a large group of non-flying officers."

"Let us have a single head and make him responsible for what happens."

"Congress should investigate Mitchell's charges. I do not believe the War Department will give him an opportunity in present evidence to support his charges, because they are afraid he might expose incompetency of his superiors."

Legion to Ban Army "Star Chamber" Trial of Mitchell
 San Antonio, Tex., Sept. 10 (A.P.).—The American Legion of Texas will energetically interest itself to prevent Colonel Mitchell being court-martialed behind closed doors, if tried in Texas on charges growing out of his criticism of the War and Navy departments, Dr. W. T. Downing, newly elected commander of the Texas Legion, said after a conference with Mitchell.

MAINE LUMBER PLANT FIRE LOSS IS $300,000
 South Windham, Me., Sept. 10 (A.P.).—The main building of the L. C. Andrews, box manufacturing plant here, the boiler house, another building used for the drying of finished lumber, the company's garage, two carloads of boards and hundreds of thousands of feet of lumber piled up in the yards, together with a section house used by Maine Central railroad workers, were destroyed by fire.

The estimated loss is more than $300,000.

MORE MORGUE EXPENSE FOR PICKWICK DISASTER
 An echo of the Pickwick Club disaster was heard in the City Council chamber when an order from Mayor Curley came through for an additional appropriation of $1,500 for expenses in connection with the disaster. Among the items was $174 sought by Dr. Timothy Leary to defray expenditures in his department at the City Hospital, where the bodies of all the victims were transferred when recovered from wreckage.

CROCKETT HELD IN $10,000 AS SAFECRACKER
 Charles L. Crockett, alias Ralph Wilson, former building superintendent at No. 34 Portland street, was arraigned before Judge Murray in Municipal Court today on charges of breaking into a safe and stealing Liberty bonds to the amount of $10,000. He was held in $10,000 bail until next Thursday.

Crockett is alleged to have broken into the safe of Stuyvesant Overland Company in the Portland street building. He was also charged with having burglar tools in his possession.

The prisoner refused to give his home address, which the police suspect is a storehouse for stolen goods.

Between now and this date trial for his arraignment the case will be brought before the Grand Jury in an effort to secure an indictment, and in the meantime, police of the City Street Station are attempting to locate Crockett's residence.

TUBE FLOODED; 400,000 IN N. Y. TRAFFIC TIE-UP
 New York, Sept. 10 (A.P.).—Five feet of water flowed into the West Side subway tube between East 142nd and Ninety-sixth streets, under Broadway, today, when a thirty-six-inch water main broke a block away. All train service between Seventy-second and Ninety-sixth streets was stopped. Fire and subway apparatus was called in clear the tube. Police reserves were ordered on duty at the five subway stations within the flooded area. Probably 400,000 were affected by the tie-up.

JUDGE AHERN IN FIGHT FOR HIS BABY GIRL

daughter. They have also been ordered to produce Winifred in court. To the Boston Evening American today Judge Ahern, before taking his bench in Hingham, made the following statement:

"I would, of course, shrink my duty to every parent, shrink my duty to every parent, shrink my duty to every parent."

TOLD MARRIAGE PLANS.
 "I had never anticipated that the respondents would attempt to interfere with my rights in the case of my daughter or to attempt to deprive the child of her natural and legal guardian and take the affection of the child."

Four months before I made public announcement, I notified the respondents of my coming engagement and that I intended, of course, to take my daughter Winifred.

"Neither Josephine nor, in fact, any of the respondents and anything regarding my engagement, nor have they since, at any time, mentioned the marriage or offered me congratulations."

When I told Josephine that I considered it my duty to take Winifred, she, at that time, said it was time to do so.

"On Memorial Day I made arrangements to have the child brought to Brookline. It was the first time since Winifred was born that she had been alone with me without one of the respondents being present."

"Winifred had a delightful time with my house. I told her about the new home she would have in the Arkway and the new mother she would have."

"On the following morning I was going for a ride with my folks and I told the respondents over the telephone that I was going to take Winifred for the ride."

"Josephine replied, 'She is not well at all.' I said, 'You have Winifred ready because I'm going to take her for a ride.'"

"Then I went out to the house in Adams street and found Winifred as well as she ever was, laughing and gay. She was on the very arms with them and she ran out to the car and climbed in the car. Then Mary ran out and attacked me for what she called 'my conduct.'"

"Winifred cried and I was obliged to leave her. Since then I have never been able to get her or take her."

Judge Ahern married his first wife on February 17, 1920, in St. Peter's Church, Dorchester. She had been a kindergarten teacher in the Marshfield School, Dorchester, and during the war was prominent in relief work.

Note the shape. Three good reasons for the notched sides (patented): 1. Splits in two halves easily. 2. Less crumbling. 3. In baking, the notches form many vent-holes in the short of crackers. Result—more thorough baking and better flavor.

Higher in food value than bread

HEALTHY, common-sense folks are not apt to eat this thing or that just because it has energy value. They trust their instincts in eating, as they should. But it's a good thing to know that this new soda cracker is a real energy maker. Compared with all the other foods you eat, it ranks very high in fuel value. Four crackers contain 100 calories.

This new Sunshine Soda Cracker

A different method of cutting the biscuit.

Most careful watchfulness at the ovens;

Just the right percentage of gluten in the wheat.

The outcome of this process is a new kind of soda cracker, full of the voracious, rich, fine texture and good-looking plumpness.

STAGE BEAUTIES FORCED OUT AT ATLANTIC CITY

'Miss Manhattan' and 'Coney Island' Quit Tourney on Amateurs' Protests

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 10 (A.P.)—Miss Dorothy Knapp and Miss Kathryn Ray, New York show girls, whose appearance as Miss Manhattan and Miss Coney Island in the national beauty tournament now in progress here threatened its disruption, today voluntarily withdrew from the contest.

In letters to the judges committee announcing their withdrawal they declared that they had taken the step rather than embarrass the pageant management.

Withdrawal of the two New York contestants about whom the "Battle of the Beauties" has raged for the past month, will lead to the re-entry of Miss Mildred Walker (Miss Pittsburgh) and Miss Mary Ann Girth (Miss Erie) who withdrew yesterday, according to M. D. Crandall, their manager.

Crandall's ultimatum to the pageant manager was that unless Miss Knapp and Miss Ray withdrew voluntarily or were disqualified by noon today Miss Pittsburgh and Miss Erie would depart for their homes at once. Other young women from Pennsylvania towns were reported to have supported their stand and were likewise prepared to leave.

SOMERVILLE TO OPEN "WHITE WAY" TUESDAY

The formal opening of the Winter Hill "White Way," from Walnut to School streets on Broadway, Somerville, will be celebrated Tuesday with band concert, parade, speechmaking and vaudeville. The Y. D. Band will lead the parade. Clarence W. Goldthwaite, president of the Winter Hill Improvement Association, will open the exercises. Addresses will be delivered by Congressman Charles L. Underhill, Mayor John M. Webster and William W. Adrain.

MOOSE SELECT DETROIT FOR NEXT CONVENTION

Bridgeport, Conn., Sept. 10 (A.P.)—Detroit was selected for next year's convention of the Independent and Benevolent Order of Moose, which body today closed its annual convention. Daniel McDonald of New York was re-elected supreme dictator, and in the auxiliary body Octavia Washington, M. D., was installed as supreme noble queen.

'ROBBED' OF TITLE

Mary Kathrine Campbell of Columbus, O., who won the title "Miss America" at the Atlantic City pageant in 1922 and 1923, declares she was robbed of the title last year and further charges that the entering of professional beauties into this year's contest means that attempt is being made to turn the pageant into a press-agent stunt for a forthcoming film.

to Disgust of Their Superior Officer

Much to the disgust of their superior officers, three sergeants stationed at Camp Devens were held in discipline each today as material witnesses in connection with the killing of John M. Mahoney, prohibited agent, at a camp in Westford. The men were ordered held by a judge in superior criminal court at East Cambridge. Army officers declared they could not escape, and the bail and the jailing of the men until bail was obtained was not necessary. Joseph Malhot of Westford, who is charged with the murder of Mahoney, was held without bail by order of the same court. It is claimed the army sergeants were in the camp, where it is alleged, liquor was sold when the prohibition agent was killed.

$1,500 URGED BY U. S. EMPLOYEES AS LOW WAGE

Congress to Be Asked to Consider Living Cost in Re-adjusting Salaries

Federal employees, in convention here, took quick steps to seek a minimum wage of $1,500 for all adult civilian workers in the government service outside the Post Office Department. At the Hotel Brunswick it was unanimously voted to instruct the general executive board to present a bill to the next session of Congress making the wage provision. Also in resolutions the convention demanded that field service compensation schedules be based on the increased cost of living, and on the minimum wage scale already in effect in the Post Office Department. The resolution read in part: "Congress has recognized the high cost of living and the low purchasing power of the dollar by increasing the salaries of its own members $2,500, and the salaries of postal employees by $200."

Sofia, Bulgaria, Sept. 10 (A.P.)—King Boris played the role of hero when he jumped from a moving automobile and stopped a team of runaway horses, probably saving the lives of several children.

BLAMES FATHER OF NOEL FOR RELEASE

Hospital Physician Testifies
He Advised Return of Son to Asylum

Newark, N. J., Sept. 10 (N.B.)—Responsibility for release of the New Jersey (overbook) hospital for the insane of Harrison, N.J., once-famous murderer of his year-old Mary Hays of Montclair and Raymond, Penn., Montclair, Montclair, was placed squarely on the W. W. Noel, Harrison, N.J., R. C. Thompson, when he testified at the hospital today before the Essex county board of freeholders' meeting at an investigation here.

Dr. Thompson testified he had told the elder Noel after his son had been released from Bellevue Hospital in New York that Noel "owed it to society as a duty" to return Harrison to Overbrook Hospital, where he had escaped. Thompson said he told Harrison's father that the boy was incurably insane and had a homicidal tendency.

Dr. Thompson testified Dr. Noel had informed him June 13, 1925, the day after Harrison's discharge from Bellevue, that he would return his son to Overbrook Hospital.

Dr. Thompson was the physician in charge of Harrison in Overbrook Hospital.

Her attorney said the principles were engaged twenty-six years ago, but parental objection caused the girl to marry another. Later she was divorced and again met White and assumed she would be married. Then she found White had married another woman twenty years ago.

Boy's Skull Fractured
Charles Brennan, 12, of No. 37, the younger brother of a City House

CRY RAISED TO SAVE OLD IRONSIDES

the suffering with a fractured skull caused at Broadway and Al-bay street, when he was struck and tossed down by an automobile. He was moved and operated to Greer House of No. 2 Brock street, Milton.

CHIP IN FOR 'IRONSIDES'

Your chance to aid in saving "Old Ironsides" is at hand. Let us not forget, he it known that "Old Ironsides" is the house of the Constitution, battle-ship of the early American navy.

The Constitution now lies slowly rotting in a water grave at the Charleston Navy Yard. It is up to the public to "chip in" and save the gallant old ship. Just as many private citizens have been "chipping in" to build a new ship, so many citizens and naval workers have been aiding the old ship.

A "chip in" sent to the Charleston Navy Yard will be received.

TWICE SAVED

"There has been tried to break up a grand old ship," said the architect of a Leif assistant naval constructor at the Navy Yard who is in charge of the rebuilding of the Constitution, "and both times she was saved."

"Now she is threatened with actual disintegration from dry rot and we are going to save her. In other years it will be too late."

"It is fully believed" said the architect of the Congress would eventually appropriate sufficient money to repair the Constitution. "On the other hand, we have a chance of saving her by the people's own efforts. What could be better than to have the people themselves directly contribute to the ship?"

STARTED BY ELKS

That is why we have started the "chip in" campaign. The Order of Elks, a well-known fraternal organization, has started a campaign among the people to save the ship. It is a good idea and we hope to see it succeed.

It was the bold children of the ship who saved her. They were the ones who kept her from being sold for scrap. They were the ones who kept her from being sold for scrap. They were the ones who kept her from being sold for scrap.

Treat Shows How to Play Tackle

Herb Treat photographed illustrating the regular stance. This is the first of a series of pictures showing the regular stance of a football player. Treat has played and coached football for many years.

By HERB TREAT

Chosen by Walter Camp from the undefeated Princeton team of 1922 as an all-American tackle, Mr. Treat will report some of the season's big games for the Boston Evening American.

ARTICLE 5

"A TEAM is as strong as its tackle," said Percy Haughton a few years ago and it was about that time that I was expected to report on the season's big games for the Boston Evening American.

To have the right to pass the ball down the field, "follow through" the ball, and to be able to "follow through" the ball, is the first and most important thing a tackle must know.

The tackle to success is a man who is able to "follow through" the ball, and to be able to "follow through" the ball, is the first and most important thing a tackle must know.
